Didactical Farm with guide

The Didactical Farm is a direct link between rural and city life. The aim of the project is food education, the transmission of rural world's values and culture and to promote agriculture awareness linking the past to the present. For the all day or half day, the farm proposes workshops involving practical activities of direct contact with animals and plants in their natural habitat and includes a visit to the reconstruction of an ancient Sardinian farm.

Horse back riding

Horse riding is a way to approach an environment with a high naturalistic value, uncontaminated areas and stunning panoramas, communities that maintain traditions and culture from the past, flavors and fragrances sometimes thought as disappeared. Leaving the stables you will take easy paths and farm roads in the nature, that run along white sand beaches and a sea with thousands of shades of blue.

Treasure Hunt

Surprise them with a treasure hunt! It will give them something fun to do, and treasure hunts are a great way for you to get more involved with your kids and learn about their interests. We have as much fun planning our treasure hunts together as we do actually completing them. Treasure hunts are fun, interactive and creative and you can tailor them for kids of various ages. You can have a treasure hunt right at home, in your yard, yacht or also on the shore. And the different themes and styles to choose from are endless.
